

NOVEMBER FOOD 'N' FUN ISSUE!

GEEK WEEKLY →

OK, SO THIS IS MY SECOND ISSUE, FINALLY! I'VE GOTTEN SOME FEEDBACK ON MY 1ST ISSUE &
I GUESS MOST OF IT WAS POSITIVE - EXCEPT THAT CHEPO CAME BY LOOKIN' TO KICK SOME
ASS AFTER HE SAW IT. THEN HE REALIZED
IT WAS JUST LI'L OL' ME, SO ITS ALL OK
NOW.

THIS NEW, IMPROVED 2ND ISSUE INCLUDES
A # OF TREATS LIKE AN INTERVIEW, POETRY!?,
A SPECIAL PULLOUT ENTERTAINMENT SECTION,
SOME REVIEWS & LOTS OF OTHER LITTLE SCRAPS O' SHIT.

BUT BEFORE I CONCLUDE I WOULD LIKE TO THANK EVERYONE WHO EVER SAID ANYTHING
NICE ABOUT MY ZINE - AND ME, MY FAMILY, FRIENDS OR ASSOCIATES, FOR THAT MATTER. FUCK THE REST OF YOU LEECHES!
AND JUST SO YOU KNOW THOSE NENTS
MY ROOMMATE HAS HAVE ORANGE SPOTS
ON THEIR BELVIES & THAT IS THE COOLEST THING ABOUT THEM TO DATE.

LOVE YOU ALL SO MUCH,

Stennis Ler.

PS- SEND ME SOMETHIN' &
I'LL SEND YOU SOMETHIN' -
~~IT~~ IT'LL PROBABLY BE THIS
ZINE, BUT ONE NEVER KNOWS -
DO ONE?

Ramblin' Girl

OK, SO I'D PUT MORE STUFF IN THIS ISSUE (CAUSE GOD KNOWS I'VE GOT MORE STUFF), BUT I'M AFRAID THAT IF I DON'T STOP NOW I NEVER WILL AND I'LL GO THROUGH THE REST OF MY LIFE SCAVENGING FOR PRINTABLE MATERIAL AND WONDERING IF PEOPLE WILL BE ABLE TO READ MY HANDWRITING WHEN IT'S SHRUNKEN TO 67% OF ITS ORIGINAL SIZE.

WHOA! SORRY THERE.

OK, SO THIS ISSUE HAS A CONTEST! YEP, FOLKS, SINCE FALL IS HUNTING SEASON (ISN'T IT?) THERE'S SOME GUN SAFETY STUFF ON PAGE 15. THIS STUFF WAS TAKEN FROM A PAMPHLET PUT OUT BY THE NRA. HERE'S THE COVER:

SHOOTING FOR SAFETY

ANYWAY, ON PAGE 15 ARE THREE BASTARDIZED CARTOONS AND ONE BLANK ONE. WRITE IN SOME SPEECH BALLOONS OR A CAPTION OR SOMETHING, XEROX IT AND SEND IT TO ME. THE BEST ENTRY WINS A PRIZE. I EXPECT MY MAILBOX TO BE BRIMMING WITH ENTRIES BY 1 DECEMBER AT THE LATEST, BUT SEND ENTRIES AFTER THAT, TOO.

AND SEND ME OTHER LETTERS, TOO, CAUSE I'M ON THE BRINK OF SAYIN' FUCK IT TO THIS TOWN AGAIN AND JUST LEAVIN'. SO ALL YOU GEEKS OUT THERE THAT I DON'T KNOW YET GET IN TOUCH WITH ME AND GIVE ME SOME REASONS TO STICK AROUND FOR A WHILE LONGER. DAMMIT!

Letters

Dear Jennifer (Geek Zine) and Jennifer (The Roommate),
9.22.94

Yesterday I picked up Geek Weekly at Sound Exchange and I am so excited for you. I think that it's completely admirable that some cool girl got off her ass and put something together. I hope your getting good responses (this being one).

Anyway, I was only visiting Austin yesterday, I actually live in San Marcos (approx 20 min South) but I don't even feel like I live here either. I just moved from Fresno, California with my family. And I'm going crazy! I very much like Austin, I think good things are happening there, but I'm having a bitch of a time sniffing it all out. So, if you ~~can~~ hear of something try to let me know, and vice is the verse.

I have never heard of Motards/Drags/or Fells but you spoke highly of them and I'll be sure to check em out. You also mentioned Emo's, and I've only been there a few times but I want to make it there more often, starting with next weeks 7 year bitch. They're so good, did you see they're last show? Some fuckin idiot sprayed pepper mase in the pit and they had to leave the stage for a few minutes but they came back on and just kicked ass.

Alright, I wrote you. Usually I would just think of what a good idea writing you would be, but today is different. So, I keep my eyes open for the next Geek Weekly and I hope to hear back from you.

Yours,
Jacey

Ode To My Tye Dye

It's ever so lovely
In colors galore
My pretty new tye dye
I got at the store
It was a white t-shirt
So plain for to see
But now it's got colors
So come, look at me!
It gets me in free
At the Grateful Dead
show
It tells other hippies
That I'm in the know
I never do wash it
When it starts to soil
I throw me some beet juice
And patchouli oil
In a big metal pot
And swirl it about
It comes out all stripey
All the people shout
"Hey you, hippie freak-
What the hell's with the shirt?"
I smile at them blankly
Their words do not hurt
But the heavy rocks do
As they hurl them at me

My tye dye turns reddish
In bloody misery
I think to myself
"Hey maybe they're right-
Being a nostalgic hippie
Being stoned every night
Is just pointless and stupid
Don't give me the plan
To free clothes and food stamps
And hating the man
Think I'll throw 'way this tye dye..."
But then I remember the fun I had
At Jerry's last show and how Individual all of us
Thousands of fans are
Cause we all dressed
And thought the same
And oh yeah can you spare
A joint and some change?

OK, SO LAST ISSUE I SAID TO BUY ALL THE
FELLS 7"s YOU COULD GET VER PAWS
ON, WELL HERES A FELLS DISCOGRAPHY
FOR YA. WE'LL CALL IT A SHOPPING LIST:

1. SPACE GIRLS 7" (DARK TWIST)
Also has Sleep With You & Uma on it. All three are excellent & they are even good recordings. Space Girls ~~is~~ is really long and, ~~is~~ well, spacey. Perfect! Sleep With You & Uma are very catchy - well so's the rest of their stuff, but Uma's simple & will stick to your skull lining for days.
2. Haji 7" (TOXIC STOCK)
Split w/ Rancid & Hell Spawn. Also has Fells' Dig It. I'm gonna have to ask Heath about this "Haji" thing because I let myself start wondering who he's talking about and now I'm possessed with the need to know! It's an unbeatable tale of unrequited love and a lovely song to boot. Grab one + join me on the path of discovery (← ew, yuck.) No really - it's good. (Yeah, I know that cartoon is of something entirely different!) ←

3. PEYOTE STOMP 7" (WESTWORLD)

I don't know why the fuck it's called Peyote Stomp 'cause the songs on it are called Walking and Wanting + ESP. Walking + Wanting is just a good song + ESP is, too, but on this particular listening we were realizing how the Fells' lyrics make 'em sound like geeks, but they're cool, therefore, when one listens to 'em one thinks, "Gee they sound like geeks, but they're cool, maybe I (a geek, of course) can beee cooooool toooo!"

I guess you call that inspirational or something. But then we noticed that (just as it was illustrating this key Fells point to us), it's A COVER! weird.

TUNE IN NEXT TIME FOR A COMPLETE MAN. OR ASTROMAN DISCOGRAPHY!!

4. There's also a 10" record called AMPED (Westworld). It's great although I like it best as background / puttering-around-the-house music. It'll get yer toes tappin' - you know.

So there are the records. I suggest you go buy 'em all, but most importantly, go see 'em live!

The live shows are definitely the best way to experience the Fells & I don't know what I would think about their records if I couldn't imagine that sumptuous band up there rockin'!

So there - write 'em & tell 'em to get down here.

★★ Smart me. This isn't a complete discography. It's only what I've seen & bought. Here's more:

• Fun Date 7" (3rdworld Underground)

• Visitor 7" (Dark Twist)

+ some songs on comps. (4 songs to be exact.)

Another place you don't want to be when that harsh chemical laxative kicks in.

Ok so, here's the Satans review for this issue.

Satans 9/9/94 Hole In The Wall: Sean is the single most rockinest drummer I have ever known. Mysteriously, he never breaks anything. Heath is a rock star, cranking that guitar/amp connection. Brock holds down the rhythm fort without even breaking a sweat--or messing up his hot hairdo. And Hunter is the perfect frontman, raisin' hell and forgetting his lyrics. There you have it. The Men. The Satans.

THEN:

Some guy named Justin had a party at Emo's on Sunday 10/16. I don't know him, but he ~~was~~ had the Satans, the motards & the Cryin' out Louds playin' his party, so he must be cool. I got sick of Emo's before the motards & the COLs played, but I did catch the itty-bitty Satans set. They're good to their fans at least, They played most of their hits in the (≈) 20-minute show. They did the Guido Sarducci version of Slugger - just one time through. It left me wanting more, but I was pleased (albeit drunk).:

ALCOHOL DRUGS AND DRIVING #2: This issue is a reading odyssey. A perfect companion at 3am (the perfect time) at Ken's Donuts (just about the only place open at 3am). Chock-full of intriguing articles + entertaining news clips. Both educational ~~and~~ and motivational. ~~and~~ Includes Bargain Bin (about neat things for free in the library or cheap at thrift stores), a Texas mass murderer profile, New England paranoid tale of credit bill collectors, a surprising survey by Parade magazine and instructions on how to build your own atomic bomb. Free and easy. (AD+D, CLO ALTERNITY PRODUCTIONS, PO BOX D, AUSTIN, TX 78713-8904.)

APAT #4 TREND #14: I haven't read many of these, but I sense a really straightforward attitude. It gets a little hardcore for my taste every once in a while, but basically it's got some great reviews (mostly by Chuck) and a quote at the beginning of each just to kinda ~~get~~ get you on track. So read this bitch + learn something. Free, too. (A-Trend, 912-A W. Elizabeth, Austin, TX 78704.)

GEEK WEEKLY #2:

Meatier than the first issue. Written at a frantic pace + botched in places as a result. Apparently the author will be giving issues away for 25¢ each (or will trade for just about anything) instead of the 50¢-rip-off of an initial charge (for 1st issue). Back issues available* upon request.

PEEK-A-BOO #1-9: I've had issues 7 + 8 since they came out + I just got issue 9 + the ~~BOX~~ SET of issues 1-6. I guess I'll really just review issue #9, but I want to say that as a

MESSAGE PARLOR #2: Excellent writing, but I liked #1
better. (No Address)

U-236 #14 - Seen it in passing. A bitch to get ahold of. Love this zine! (2303 Rio Grande #6, Austin, 78705.)

ANTICHRIST - All issues I've seen are shit! Crap!
Bunk! Bad, Bad, Pretentious, Bad.

FOUR MILE CIRCUS #1: A zine on loan from Susan (some guy sent it to her from Oklahoma city). I haven't finished it, but it looks intriguing. Includes "Wierdomanifesto," some poetry, a feature on John Zorn, etc... But it's $2.50!! 1ck. Maybe Susan'll let you borrow it next. But if Mom + Dad are paying your ~~rent~~ rent, or you just made a big drug deal, here's the address:

addresses:

To get a copy of that ^{see record reviews (p. 20)} Flying Saucer Attack record: VHF, Box 7365, Fairfax Station, VA 22039.

For Yo La Tengo's Fakebook, write to Bar/None Records, PO Box 1704, Hoboken, NJ 07030.

You can get the K-Tel 70s tributes or any of Javelin Boot's records from Pravda Records, 3823 N. Southport, Box A1, Chicago, IL 60613 Or, I'll bring em back with me for ya after my X-mas trip to Chicago. I always love another excuse to go to Southport, my favorite Chicago street.

For that lockgroove 7" or any of a number of other annoying records write RERecords, 151 Paige St., Lowell, MA 01852.

An ad caught my eye cause it advertised a Pure Joy CD-ick!!- and Phantom Surfers 45s and stuff by the Fastbacks. PopLlama Products, PO Box 95364, Dept. F, Seattle, WA 98145. Cool Name, too.

And, of course, with Slint, Palace Brothers, Big Black, Royal Trux + Pavement, theres Touch + Go, PO Box 25520-CC, Chicago, IL, 60625.
