

Ode to PInk ROck

Went to Emo's jest last night
 Got fucked up, got in a fight
 Head feels like a cinder block
 Sold my life to ol' punk rock
 Butthole Surfers, D.O.A.,
 Like what them boys got to say Buzzed my hair right off my head Ripped my clothes up thread by thread
 I'm so tough now, I'm so cool
 Punk rock chicks around me drool
 Race & run from show to show
 Bummin' rides where ever I go
 I'm too cool to own a car
 Throw up at my favorite bar
 Jump into a big mosh pit
 Tussle 'round, get beat to shit
 So bad I don't know where I am Meaner than the Son of Sam
 Lean against the wall and slump
 Smell like somethin' from the dump
 The greatest scenester you ever seen
 Stage dive pranks & I careen Right into a cop who hauls me in
 I scream "Fuck you!" & then a grin Falls on my face 'cause he can't see
 I'm a cool punk rocker, marvelous me
 Throw me in jail, see if I scare
 My mom'll bail me outta there
 In fact, there's my mom now
 To give me a ride home, but Dude, if you forget for a minute
 How bad I am, I'll I tear your Head off & shit down your neck!

Ok, Austin. We've got to get the punks to vote. I don't care what anyone says, voting does matter, you've got power, maybe not much, but if we all get on the ball, we can make something happen. If you feel like you are just a drop in the bucket, it's because you are. But here's something you can do about it: Next time you come across a stack of voter registration cards, fill one out, then send it in, then give one to someone else, maybe lots of people, and then go vote, and take a bunch of people with you.

The thing is, most of the kids I know don't want to vote because they don't want to "play their game." Sure you don't want to be part of the System and take part in the fucked up workings of this institutionalized establishment, but the problem with that is that you are doing exactly what They want you to do. See, whether we like it or not we were born into this system. Sure you can change your identity, try to become anonymous, even live in a fucking cave in the mountains, but somebody is going to own that cave, and it ain't gonna be you. Someone will have political control over you no matter where the fuck you go unless you start your own country, which-especially if you don't follow politics- is going to be extremely fucking difficult. But if you vote, maybe we can gain a little power. Remember when Rock the Vote started? Clinton won. Sounds like an influx of young voters to me. And the coolest part is that politicians can see that and they've already started courting younger people, not much, granted, but if we keep voting and our numbers keep going up, They'll get scared and start checking us out and maybe even trying to find out what we really want instead of cramming what They think we want down our throats.

Here's an example of how They are keeping potentially powerful people out of the way (I know this is totally paranoid, but it is one of the only conspiracy theories I believe in): So my friend goes to a Dead show in Atlanta and I ask him a bunch of questions when he comes back since I've never gone to one and I never plan to and I'm wondering how it all works what with the cops and the drugs and all. So I say, "If the cops know there are all these people camped out with all these highly illegal drugs in their possession, why don't they just do this massive raid and bust a bunch of people and put 'em in jail?" "Well," he says, "they aren't hurting anyone, so I guess the cops just don't want to bother with it." Seems to me there's more to it than that. I know how much cops like to bust kids and people with drugs- they LOVE it. So why wouldn't these cops have a fucking field day here? Because, as long as these potentially revolutionary folks are all high and happy and only interested in seein' this band all the time and stayin' high, They have nothing to fear from them. If there was a real crackdown on drugs (not just a bunch of media hype and publicity busts), then less people would be high and more people would be spending time trying to subvert the Man and the System and get their drugs back-and they'd all be fuckin' shit up! And voting!! Now They can't have that horrific scenario come to life, can They? So They just let us do our drugs and leave them the fuck alone so that They can take over the world without us even noticing- much less getting in Their way.

So go vote. And take someone with you. If you don't have an address to put on the voter registration card (which you can get at grocery stores, post offices, schools, etc.) put mine on there- I could use some more mail anyway. Write me- lets talk about this. And in the meantime, go out there and fuck shit up!!

November 15, 1994

Dear

We regret to inform you that we have rejected your application to market and represent our product, TROJAN CONDOMS.

Although your general physical appearance is not displeasing, our Board of Directors feel that your wearing of our product in advertisements does not portray a positive, romantic image for our product. A loose, baggy, and wrinkled condom is NOT considered romantic.

We did admire your efforts to firm it up by using Poly Grip, but even then it slipped off before we could get the photographs taken. We would like to note, however, that yours is the first we have seen that looked like a bicycle grip.

We appreciate your interest and would like to thank you for your time. We will retain your application for possible future consideration. If by chance we decide there is a market for mini-condoms, we will contact you.

We send greetings and sympathy to your lady.

Sincerely,

Burley Dick

1) Sujete bien la punta del condon entre los dedos pulgar e indice sobre la cabeza del pene erecto.

2) Apriete el receptaculo al final del condon (para sacar el aire que sobra dentro de la punta del condon).

3) Con la otra mano, enrolla el condon sobre el resto del pene (como el esperma puede salirse antes de la eyaculacion, el condon debe ponerse sobre el pene antes de cualquier contacto con la vagina).

4) Despues de la relacion sexual, saque el pene de la vagina antes de perder la ereccion con cuidado sujetando el condon sobre el pene al final del mismo (para prevenir que el condon se salga al sacar el pene).

5) Remueva el condon y deshagase de el.

6) Use un condon nuevo por cada acto o relacion sexual.

ALL EMPLOYEES

It has been brought to the attention of the management that some individuals have been using foul language in the course of normal conversation between employees. Due to complaints by some of the more easily offended workers, this conduct will no longer be tolerated.

The management does, however, realize the importance of each person being able to properly express his/her feelings when communicating with fellow employees. Therefore, the management has compiled the following code phrases so that the proper exchange of ideas and information can continue.

Old Phrase	New Phrase
No fucking way!	I'm not certain that's feasible.
You've got to be shittin' me.	Really?
Tell someone who gives a fuck.	Perhaps you should check with...
Ask me if I give a fuck.	Of course I'm concerned.
It's not my fucking problem.	I wasn't involved in that project.
What the fuck?	Interesting behavior.
Fuck it. It won't work.	I'm not sure I can implement this.
Why the fuck didn't you tell me sooner?	I'll try to schedule that.
When the fuck do you expect me to do this?	Maybe I can work late.
He's got his head up his ass.	He's not familiar with the problem.
Who the fuck cares?	Are you sure it's a problem.
Eat shit.	You don't say.
Eat shit and die.	Excuse me?
Eat shit and die, motherfucker.	Excuse me, sir?
Kiss my ass.	So you'd like my help with it?
Fuck it. I'm on salary.	I'm a bit overloaded at the moment.
Shove it up your ass.	I don't think you understand.
This job sucks.	I love a challenge.
Blow me.	I see.
Blow yourself.	Do you see?
Another fucking meeting.	Yes, we should discuss this.
I really don't give a shit.	I don't think this will be a problem.
FUCK YOU!!!	How nice, how very, very nice.

I'm Possessed & Hangman Lager
b/w Nothing Ever Changes & Unhappy

*I love, love, love this stuff, but at this point, even I have to admit that it is getting kinda predictable round these parts and I'd definitely rather see these bands live. Still, this is a fine record with the Motards sounding shitty and the COLs sounding slightly less shitty.

Little Deeper Records on box 7006 Austin, Tx. 78713-7006

The Humpers 7" (Sympathy...) Fast, Fucked & Furious
b/w For Lovers Only The rock'n'roll just leaps off of this one. As a matter of fact, when congratulated for their endurance after their two raucous Austin shows, one of 'em replied, "Hey, that's rock'n'roll." Listen to this in your car and run over pedestrians.

Grifters 7" (Sub Pop)
Queen of the Table Waters
b/w Return to Cinder

*Sub pop?!? I'm still kind of in shock when I see the Sub Pop logo on the sleeve, but then I am in near constant contact with some heavy duty indie-rock-politics gossip/debaters. So, this record is beautiful and haunting and dark and shiny and it spins round and round and fucks my head all up which is exactly what a Grifters record is good for. Thank you, Sub Pop for a very pleasing product.

Hormones 7" (Unclean)
Sell Out Young b/w You Can't Win
*Catchy as fuck!! Great '77 punk-pop. Recorded before Tim Hayes and Dana Barclay jetted.
The a-side is Tim's, the b-side is Ron's.

His laboratory was in a men's room. "I did some good work in there."

Grifters/Fluffy Kitty split7" (Cherry Smash) Dildozer b/w I Had *Disclaimer- I've only heard this record two and a half times (Grifters x 3, FK x 2)...
 The Grifters cut is a good, solid specimen, but contrary to what I expected, the Fluffy Kitty cut is the one that really intrigues me. I had never heard of FK before I got this record, but they have really drawn me in and just yesterday I sent off for more info. I am anxiously awaiting some excellent mailbox candy. A note to the aesthetes:
 Comes with a neat hand screened sleeve.

Big Drag 7" (Unclean)
 Gotta Let Me Go b/w I'm a Lonesome Fugitive
 God, and I said the Hormones single was catchy. The a-side is sweet, sweet stuff, and they show their country roots on the b-side. I guess it'll hold me till their full-length record comes out.

Satans 7" EP (EV Records)
 Get Off My Back & Ain't Gotta
 Choose b/w (I Can) Only Give You
 Everything & Run Motherfucker
 *It's hard to believe this record really exists, but believe it, baby. People listen to this record everytime right before they say "scorchin'." If you don't have a garage, but you want to feel like you're in one (for some reason), get this record- it really works. Oh, and send some shit (and I mean shit) to your favorite Satan c/o

CARBOMB 7" EP (BUDDY SYSTEM)

I'd never heard or seen this band before I had my 1st listen to this fine record & I wasn't really expecting much. Boy, was I wrong! This thing totally stunned me! sounds like kidmeal (dwn) w/ lots of Fogazi influence in places. I love it! And they're great live, too!

Seems I can't find the picture for "ascot." I don't know where it went sorry.

Apology Apology

In each of my previous issues I have promised certain articles for the next issues. I have not kept those promises. I have my fuckin' reasons, ok? I hereby swear off making any further promises of that nature. All bets are off.

Do you know the secret to achieving inner peace, world peace and spiritual enlightenment? Do you have god like powers or the ability to lead people en masse? Do you want to create your own religion? Then read on.

The GOD Kit promises you success and instant popularity in your venture. It explains step by step how to create your own religion and achieve godliness. The kit, created by GOD for Jesus Christ and updated for you, contains a 200+ page full color manual that incorporates such topics as "What makes a good religion?," "What can you do to get followers and influence people?," "Why is Christianity so popular, understanding these ideas and applying them to your own religion.", and "How to become a living god."

What makes a good religion? The underlying concept of most religions is to achieve peace and spiritual enlightenment and be rewarded with eternal life in heaven. Different religions promise that the can guide their followers to these goals better than any other. By subscribing now you can learn how to surpass these religions and make yours 97% better.

How can you get people to follow your spiritual path? Jesus taught about brotherly love. Buddha said that meditation and enlightenment are the way. Judaism

What made the great religious figures great? Why are Jesus, Buddha, Mohammed and many others revered as gods? These and many other questions are answered in The GOD Kit.

When you subscribe you will learn hundreds of interesting things, everything you need to know to start a religion. The cassettes further guide you to understand religion do's and don'ts. The GOD Kit seems as though it would be priceless. In reality it can be purchased for a heavenly amount. The kit has been approved for children over seven and all adults. So order your GOD Kit now.
